The Collect of the Day

Heavenly Father, whose blessed Son was revealed to destroy the works of the devil and to make us the children of God and heirs of eternal life: grant that we, having this hope, may purify ourselves even as he is pure; that when he shall appear in power and great glory we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

The Post-Communion Prayer

Gracious Lord, in this holy sacrament you give substance to our hope: bring us at the last to that fullness of life for which we long; through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

The First Reading

A reading from the book of Daniel.

'At that time Michael, the great prince, the protector of your people, shall arise. There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever.

Daniel 12.1-3

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm

§ Said together at 8.00am. Sung by the choir at 11.00am.

Preserve me O God:
for in thee have I put my trust.

I have said unto the Lord 'Thou art my God:
I have no good apart from thee.'

All my delight is upon the godly that are in the land:
and upon such as excel in virtue.

But as for them that turn back to other gods:
their sorrows shall be multiplied.

Their drink-offerings of blood will I not offer:
neither make mention of their names upon my lips.

The Lord himself is the portion of mine inheritance and my cup:
thou dost maintain my lot.

The lines have fallen for me in pleasant places:
yea I have a goodly heritage.

I will thank the Lord for giving me counsel:
my heart also teacheth me in the night-season.

I have set God always before me:
he is on my right hand, therefore I shall not fall.

Wherefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoiceth:
my flesh also shall rest in safety.

For thou shalt not deliver me into the power of death:
neither shalt thou see thy holy one to see the pit.

Thou shalt shew me the path of life, in thy presence is the fulness of joy:
and in thy right hand there are pleasures for ever more.

Psalm 16
The Second Reading

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

And every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, 'he sat down at the right hand of God', and since then has been waiting 'until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.' For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified. And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying,

'This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds', he also adds, 'I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.' Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.

Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Hebrews 10.11–25

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to St Mark.

Glory to you, O Lord.

As he came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, 'Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!' Then Jesus asked him, 'Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.'

When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, 'Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?' Then Jesus began to say to them, 'Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, "I am he!" and they will lead many astray. When you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birth pangs.'

Mark 13.1–8

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Mothers' Union—Our next meeting will be in the Parish Hall at 2pm on Monday 18th November. We hope to have a speaker from Care & Repair and hear of the valuable work they provide. As usual, visitors are always welcome.

Scam Emails—A number of parishioners and Cathedral staff have received suspicious emails from different people which appear to be scams or phishing attempts. Please keep an eye out for this and if you suspect that your email address is affected, it's recommended to change your password.

School references for Llandaff City Church in Wales Primary School: Parents needing a church reference for their child's application should please email Canon Jan (chancellor@llandaffcathedral.org.uk) with an outline of their and their child's involvement at the Cathedral over at least the last 2 years. This information will be helpful alongside our own attendance records.

Join us as we journey towards an EcoChurch Silver award... Llandaff Cathedral received the Bronze award in 2020. We are eager to proceed to the next level. Each week we will update you on the progress we are making and highlighting ways that you can join with us to care for God's creation. St. David said 'Be joyful, keep the faith, and do the little things...'. A little thing you can do this week:

Have yourself a little bit greener Christmas!—Whether you celebrate a big family Christmas, or you just give out a few cards to your friends and neighbours to wish them a happy time, here are some quick tips for a greener Christmas! <https://www.wildlifetrusts.org/actions/how-have-eco-christmas>

Prayers for the sick – Prayer intentions for the sick: this list is now based on the requests sent in via this form: <https://llandaffcathedral.churchsuite.com/forms/wy58qy6m> which is also available on paper from the Cathedral office. Each name remains on the list for 8 weeks and this time can be extended by re-submitting the form or emailing the Office.

Asking for a blessing instead of receiving the bread and wine? If you have been baptised/christened in any church, you are welcome to receive Holy Communion at the Cathedral. If you are not baptised and/or confirmed, do get in touch if you are interested in thinking about this. You might like to try our course 'Explore the Faith' which is suitable for those enquiring about the faith, as a refresher, or as a preparation for confirmation. Contact Canon Jan to find out more.

Opportunities for musical children – Majestas Kids, our music group for children aged 6-13 has now re-started for the new academic year. Rachel Kilby, our Music Animateur, inspires children to explore their musical talents through games, singing and work with instruments. Majestas Kids meets from 10-11am on Saturdays in term time and we look forward to them performing at various Cathedral events this year. If you'd like more information, or would like to sign your child(ren) up to join, please contact our Rachel at rachelkilby@llandaffcathedral.org.uk

Majestas Youth Choir, a choir for children aged 13-18 met for the first time ever last weekend. The choir rehearse on a sessional basis, and will sing for services in the cathedral. This is a great opportunity for children with a passion for music and singing to perform in a profession context in the beautiful setting of worship in our Cathedral.

If you would like more information about Majestas Youth Choir, or about any other events happening in the music department, please email us at music@llandaffcathedral.org.uk

Churchyard Champion—Could this be your way of serving the Cathedral? We are looking for someone to love the churchyard and care for it. The grass is cut every 4 weeks by a contractor, but everything else relies on volunteers. This includes weeding the two gardens of remembrance, trimming the new hedge, caring for the butterfly garden and the bug cathedral, clearing leaves and fallen branches, and so on. The Churchyard Champion will coordinate the volunteer team who currently meet on Saturday mornings (but this could change). Please contact Canon Jan if you might be interested.

The 'Anniversary of Death' List – If your loved one's funeral was held at the Cathedral, and/or their ashes are interred in our Garden of Remembrance, their name can be included in the prayers on the anniversary of their death, and/or in the Book of Remembrance, by request from next of kin using this form: <https://llandaffcathedral.online/remembrance-form>

Join the Friends of Llandaff Cathedral – The Friends are an independent charity founded to provide invaluable support to the Cathedral's life; its fabric, music and heritage.

Information about projects and membership can be found at www.llandaffcathedral.org.uk/friends
